(2) If a convicted prisoner does not surrender himself as required by sub-section (1) within a period of ten days from the date on which he should have surrendered, it shall amount to an offence and he shall be arrested by any Police Officer or Jail Officer without a warrant and shall be handed over to the officer-in-charge of the jail from which he was released to undergo the unexpired portion of his sentence.

(3) If a convicted prisoner surrenders himself before the Superintendent Jail from which he was released within a period of ten days of the date on which he should have surrendered but fails to satisfy the Superintendent Jail that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from surrendering himself immediately on the expiry of the period for which he was released, the Superintendent Jail may award to the prisoner all or any of the following penalties after affording the prisoner a reasonable opportunity of being heard, namely:-

- (a) a maximum cut of five days remission for each day of overstay;
- (b) stoppage of canteen concession for a maximum period of one month;
- (c) withholding concession of interviews (including electronic interviews) for a maximum period of three months;
- (d) not to count the period of temporary release on furlough of the prisoner under section 4 towards his sentence;

- (e) warning;
- (f) reduction from higher to a lower class or grade.

Penalty for failure to surrender.

10. (1) Any convicted prisoner guilty of an offence under sub-section (2) of section 9 shall be punishable with imprisonment of either description which shall not be less than two years which may extend to three years and with fine upto one lakh rupees.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this section, the punishment awarded under this section shall be in addition to the punishment(s) awarded to the prisoner for the offence for which he was convicted earlier and shall start after execution of all such previous punishment(s) and the period spent during the trial of the offence committed under this Act shall not be set off against the punishment awarded under this Act except for the period which the prisoner spent exclusively for the offence committed under this Act.

(2) An offence punishable under sub-section (1) shall be deemed to be cognizable and non-bailable.

(3) The sureties of full amount shall be forfeited by the District Magistrate on the recommendation of the Superintendent Jail.

(4) Such convicted prisoner shall also be liable for any of the punishment as specified under sub-section (3) of section 9.

General provisions.

11. (1) A convicted prisoner shall be entitled for consideration for a regular parole or furlough or emergency parole or custody parole under this Act only, if he is on bail in all the cases which are pending against him before any Court or competent authority.

- (2) (a) The parole or furlough cases of convicted prisoners who are convicted by the Courts having jurisdiction outside the State of Haryana and who are undergoing imprisonment in a jail of Haryana on reciprocal basis or otherwise, shall be initiated by the Superintendent Jail and forwarded to the competent authority of that State where from he was convicted, for consideration or sanction or disposal as per the parole or furlough Act or rules of that State.
- (b) The parole or furlough cases of convicted prisoners who are convicted by the Courts having jurisdiction in the State of Haryana and who are undergoing imprisonment in a jail in other States on reciprocal basis or otherwise, shall be initiated by the Superintendent Jail concerned and shall be forwarded to the competent authority in the State of Haryana wherefrom he was convicted, for consideration/sanction/disposal as per the provisions of this Act.
- (c) In case of a convicted prisoner of the State of Haryana who is also a convict of the State(s) other than Haryana and is confined in a jail of Haryana or other State, his parole or furlough case shall be decided by the competent authority of the State where from he has been convicted and sentenced for more serious crime. If, the prisoner is convicted for the same offence in different State(s), his parole or furlough case shall be decided by the competent authority where from he is convicted first. In such cases, the consent or no objection certificate of all other State(s) shall also be obtained:

Provided that if objection is not received within one month, it shall be presumed that the State(s) has no objection for grant of parole or furlough.

- (d) A convicted prisoner who is resident of a State other than Haryana but is a convicted prisoner of the State of Haryana, parole or furlough case of such convicted prisoner shall be initiated by the Superintendent Jail and forwarded for sanction to the competent authority with a copy to the District Magistrate, Deputy Commissioner of Police or Superintendent of Police, where the prisoner wants to avail parole or furlough, for sending his report or recommendation to the competent authority within the specified time limit.
- (e) In case of convicted prisoner who is sentenced by a General Court-martial, the parole or furlough shall be granted by the Army authorities as per the provisions of clause (d) of section 179 of the Army Act, 1950 (Central Act 46 of 1950):

Provided that the custody parole may be granted to such convicted prisoner by the Superintendent Jail.

(3) Any convicted prisoner who has been awarded a minor punishment for any jail offence, shall not be eligible for any kind of parole for six months from the date of such offence; and a convicted prisoner who has been awarded a major punishment for any jail offence or has violated the conditions of temporary release, he shall not be eligible for any kind of parole for one year from the date of such offence:

Provided that such convicted prisoner may be sent on custody parole to attend funeral of his family members.

(4) Subsequent parole or furlough case of a convicted prisoner shall be initiated only after receipt of report of in-charge of police station concerned through the Superintendent of Police or the Deputy Commissioner of Police regarding his conduct during the temporary release or after one month of his surrender in the jail after availing last sanctioned parole or furlough, whichever is earlier:

Provided that the emergency parole shall be granted to the convicted prisoner anytime irrespective of the fact that his other parole or furlough case is still under consideration.

(5) No parole or furlough shall be extended in any case.

(6) Ordinarily, co-accused convicted prisoners shall not be granted regular parole or furlough simultaneously.

(7) The validity period of emergency parole warrant shall be for fifteen days from the date of issuance of the order.

(8) The validity period of a regular parole or a furlough warrant shall be for four months from the date of issuance of the order. The specific date of release or surrender shall not be fixed in the release warrant.

(9) The criminal case under sub-section (2) of section 9 shall be registered at the police station where the temporary release period is being spent or address given in the application by the eligible convicted prisoner. In case of the address being outside the State of Haryana, the criminal case shall be registered at the police station under whose jurisdiction the jail is situated.

(10) In case of rejection of regular parole or furlough by the competent authority, another application for the same purpose shall not be considered before a period of three months from the date of rejection.

(11) Before any convicted prisoner is released on parole or furlough, he shall execute a bond amounting to minimum one lakh rupees extendable to three lakh rupees alongwith minimum two sureties to the satisfaction of the competent authority. The bond shall be conditioned that the convicted prisoner or the hardcore convicted prisoner, as the case may be, shall surrender before the Jail Superintendent before the expiry of furlough or parole period:

Provided that in case of hardcore convicted prisoner, a bond shall be executed amounting to minimum two lakh rupees extendable to five lakh rupees alongwith minimum two sureties to the satisfaction of the competent authority:

Provided further that the surety amount shall not be more than one lakh rupees and three lakh rupees respectively for those convicted prisoners and hardcore convicted prisoners who have peacefully availed two regular parole and one furlough:

Provided further that the competent authority may call for more than two sureties to a maximum limit of five by recording reasons in writing.

(12) The competent authority while accepting the bond under sub-section (11), may impose such conditions, as it may deem fit. The fitness or sufficiency of the sureties shall be determined by the competent authority.

12. (1) An application for grant of parole or furlough may be submitted by the convicted prisoner himself or his adult family member before the Superintendent Jail as per Form A.

(2) On receipt of an application from a convicted prisoner regarding custody parole or emergency parole, the Superintendent Jail shall immediately send a request to the in-charge of the police station concerned under intimation to the District Magistrate or the Deputy Commissioner of Police or the Superintendent of Police to depute a jail officer not below the rank of Assistant

(4) The Deputy Commissioner of Police or the Superintendent of Police shall submit his report within the specified time limit to the District Magistrate.

(5) Only one police verification shall be necessary in a calendar year in case of those convicted prisoners who have peacefully availed two regular paroles or one furlough. However, the competent authority may seek fresh report at its discretion.

(6) The District Magistrate shall submit his recommendation or non- recommendation within the time limit as specified in sub-section (11) to the competent authority.

(7) After receipt of recommendation or report from the quarter concerned, the competent authority shall take a decision and issue regular parole or a furlough release warrant as per Form B and in case of rejection of regular parole or furlough, speaking order shall be passed. The sanction or rejection, as the case may be, shall be sent to the District Magistrate concerned and the Superintendent Jail with a copy to the Deputy Commissioner of Police or the Superintendent of Police and the convicted prisoner concerned.

(8) On receipt of the parole or furlough release warrant from the competent authority, the Superintendent Jail shall inform the prisoner concerned and such member of the prisoner's family as the prisoner may specify in that behalf for making arrangement for the execution of the personal bond and surety bond as per Form C and D respectively for securing the release:

Provided that on the written request of the convicted prisoner, the Superintendent Jail may postpone his release for a period of five days from the date of receipt of release order.

(9) Before releasing the convicted prisoner on parole or furlough, the conditions shall be read over to and explained to him and he shall be clearly informed of the date of his surrender. Thereafter, his thumb impression and signatures shall be obtained on his release order and information regarding such release shall be sent to the authorities concerned as per Form E.

(10) The in-charge of police station concerned shall keep a watch on the conduct and activities of the convicted prisoner during the temporary release and submit a report in this regard to the Superintendent Jail through the Deputy Commissioner of Police or the Superintendent of Police as early as possible, but not later than one month.

(11) The process of deciding the application for a regular parole or furlough shall be completed by the different authorities expeditiously. The maximum time for processing an application for a regular parole or furlough by the different authorities shall be as under:-

Superintendent Jail	one week
Deputy Commissioner of Police or Superintendent of Police	two weeks
District Magistrate	two weeks
Competent Authority	two weeks

Provided that if the recommendation or report is not received in the stipulated time period, the competent authority may presume that there is nothing adverse against the prisoner and may decide the application accordingly.

Power to make rules.

13. (1) The State Government may, by notification, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) Every rule made under this Act shall be laid, as soon as may be, after it is made, before the House of the State Legislature, while it is in session.

14. The Haryana Good Conduct Prisoners (Temporary Release) Act, 1988 (28 of 1988), is hereby repealed: Repeal and savings.

Provided that such repeal shall not affect-

- (a) the previous operation of the Act so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired or incurred under the Act so repealed; or
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against the Act so repealed; or
- (d) any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid; and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced, and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if this Act had not been passed:

Provided further that anything done or any action taken under the Act so repealed shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of this Act and shall continue to be in force accordingly unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under this Act.
